Motion passed.

- GENERAL COMMUNICATIONS: There were no general communications for tonight's meeting.
- CONSENT – There was no item on the consent agenda
- OLD BUSINESS – There was no item under old business

NEW BUSINESS - Review of Training Opportunities for Commissioners

Ms. House informed the commissioners of an On-Line Conference sponsored by the National Alliance of Preservation Commission. Dates for the conference were August 3-9, 2020 and the registration fee was $100 per person. Village of Glenview would cover the cost of the registration if commissioners were interested.

Conference would present 2-3 sessions per day beginning at 11:00 AM and running through to 7:00 PM. All sessions would be recorded. Commissioners would have the opportunity to watch live or at a later time. Additional information could be found on the NAP website at: napcommissions.org. Please let staff know as soon as possible if interested.

Chairman Demsky commented that the sessions may count for continuing education credit. He also encouraged the commissioners to participate in as many sessions as possible. Ms. House mentioned that the CEC credit was still pending as of today. There were no other questions/comments at this time.

There was no other business and Chairman Demsky adjourned the meeting at 6:40 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Janet Pomillo
Recording Secretary
