Police department nears its goal of accreditation

The Glenview Police Department is closing in on its goal of recognition by the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies.

Commission standards are set by 4 major law-enforcement associations: the International Association of Chiefs of Police, the National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives, the National Sheriff's Association, and the Police Executive Research Forum.

Currently, 69 police agencies — 6 of them in Illinois — are accredited in 18 states.

As there are nearly a thousand standards with which to comply, police have found the accreditation process lengthy, necessitating certain policy-and-procedure changes, but they believe the reorganization will increase law-enforcement capability, crime prevention, employee confidence, and coordination with other criminal-justice agencies.

Glenview police will investigate all complaints against the department and its employees, following through with written findings to the person or group initiating each complaint.

Public surveys will be conducted annually to assess public opinion of police performance. The first — a random survey of 1100 Glenview homes — will be done later this year, and the department hopes for a high rate of return.

Glenview residents and merchants will also have an opportunity to express opinions at a public forum to be chaired by assessors from the Commission on Accreditation.

Watch for an announcement of the public forum date in an upcoming Glenview Newsletter.

VILLAGE PRESIDENT James W. Smirles has been elected vice president of the Northwest Municipal Conference, a consortium of north and northwest municipalities cooperating in the study and solving of mutual problems.

Smirles was installed at the group's 30th anniversary celebration April 29 in Arlington Heights.

Clarne C. Hall, Village President of Winnetka, is the new president, and Bruce Trego, Barrington Village Manager, the new secretary/treasurer.

Student artists win $$$ — and acclaim

Three Glenview students are a little richer and prouder this spring because of their artistic talent, and Glenview drivers will be sporting the design of one of them on windshields for a year.

Sara Felt, whose first-place design — Kennicott House at The Grove — is on the new vehicle sticker, is a senior at Glenbrook South High School. She plans a career in architecture. Sara's prize: a check for $100 and a commendation plaque.

Katie McCowen, a third-grader at Lyon School, and Heather Mayoros, an eighth-grader at Our Lady of Perpetual Help, were runners-up. Their checks were for $25 each.

This was the second Vehicle-Sticker Design Contest sponsored by the village. Last year's winners were Margaret Ungaro (first place), Steven Cupic and Reed Edwards (runners-up).

Contest rules are announced in December/January issues of the Glenview Newsletter.

Bear Fair street sale, Saturday, June 25

For the 15th time, Glenview-area bargain-hunters will converge on the fairgrounds (Glenview Road from Waukegan Road to the railroad tracks) to shop, eat, be entertained, and meet their friends, on Saturday, June 25.

Hours for the Bear Fair street sale, an annual event of the Glenview Chamber of Commerce, are 9am to 5pm. More than 130 businesses and organizations will offer first-quality merchandise at special savings.

Food will be sold by 13 vendors, and fresh produce offered from 8am to noon at the first Certified Farmers' Market in Illinois, on the Lehigh Avenue commuter parking triangle west of the tracks.

The first 2,000 visitors to Bess Hardware and Sports will enjoy free breakfasts. A tent under the chamber's Hug-the-Bear balloon on River Drive will hold St. Catherine Labouré's Bingo game — a new feature this year.

Fire and police personnel participate with safety literature, Operation Key ID (free key tags and registration), a robot squad car, Officer Friendly, a 6-foot fire truck, and a giant fire hydrant. A postal station will cancel cards and envelopes with a specially designed Bear Fair stamp.

On stage: "Mr. D's Magic Show" (9:30-11am, sleight-of-hand and illusions), "Sundance" (11am-2pm, upbeat tunes), and "Firing Line" (2:30-5pm, more music). Please see parking bans for June 25 and the July 4 fireworks — page 3.

For senior residents ...

Carol Karol, Glenview's Senior Coordinator, has an office at the Village Hall, 1225 Waukegan Rd. (lower level), and is available there Tuesdays and Wednesdays, 9am to 1pm, and all day Thursdays, for free consultation with elderly residents and/or their families. For more information call 724-1700 X 232. See the Senior News display in the Finance Department (upper level) — free literature of importance to the elderly.

A SECOND "HOUSE OF WEL-COME" opens June 14, this one at the Sacred Heart Convent, 221 Elmwood, Wilmette, under direction of the North Shore Senior Center, 620 Lincoln Ave., where the first is located. (Houses of Welcome provide care for those with severe memory loss.) Hours are 9am-3pm two days a week. Financing is by fee, township and United Way funds, and private donations. Family support groups for those caring for memory-loss victims are also available. For complete information call Sandi Johnson, 446-8750.

"HELP YOURSELF TO HEALTH" FAIR at the North Shore Senior Center June 14 and 15, 10am-3pm, offers free health screenings and a low-cost blood-sugar and cholesterol test. No advance registration required. Tuesday lectures are on aging eyes and long-term care; Wednesday's on cancer and arthritis. Health lunches provided both days. For complete information call 446-8750.

"ETHICS AND AGING: Rights and Responsibilities," sponsored by the North Shore Senior Center, meets at Malinkrodt College, 1041 Ridge Rd., Wilmette, Thurs., June 30, 9am-2:30pm (supplementary workshop till 3:15). Subjects to be addressed include medicine and medical ethics, law, philosophy, hospice, religion, and caregiving; speakers are experts in each field. Keynote address by Robert M. Walker, M.D., of the University of Chicago, will be followed by a panel discussion. Cost, including lunch, is $20 ($10 for those over 60); parking and wheelchair access available. For information and registration call 446-8750.

DOs AND DON'Ts TO PREVENT SENIOR ABUSE, as suggested by the Governor's Office of Senior Involvement: ¶Develop a buddy system with a friend for contact at least once a week. ¶Keep regular medical, dental, and personal appointments. People you meet on your own can attest to your competency, should the need ever arise. ¶Have your own telephone and mail box, and always open your own mail. (If you suspect your mail is being intercepted, talk to the postmaster and arrange for alternative delivery.) ¶Don't allow others to keep track of your finances or property management. (Even if a guardian or power-of-attorney acts on your behalf, you still have the right to see all records, accounts, and property.) ¶Don't accept care in return for transfer or assignment of your property, without a lawyer, advocate, or other trusted person as witness. ¶If you have questions or concerns, call the North Shore Senior Center, 446-8750, and ask for a counselor.

WARNING

When a solicitor calls claiming to collect funds benefiting the Glenview Fire or Police Department, do not believe it. Neither of these departments nor their members solicit or collect funds for any purpose, and never have. When you receive such solicitations, please report them immediately to police at 729-5000. The perpetrators are acting fraudulently.

Good judgment dictates that it's not wise to patronize any telephone solicitor. Never send money to anyone soliciting by phone, and NEVER, EVER give a credit-card number over the phone (unless, of course, you are ordering voluntarily from a company you know and trust).

THE VILLAGE BOARD ...

Meets first and third Tuesdays, 7:30pm, at the Village Hall (lower level) — see calendar on page 4 of each newsletter issue.

Visitors are welcome at Village Board meetings. To address the board on matters other than items on the agenda, arrangements should be made 10 days in advance by calling the Village Manager's office, 724-1700. Emergency matters may be addressed at any meeting, after agenda items have been covered.

Bulletin Board

As space permits, we will include announcements of upcoming nonprofit, nonsectarian, nonpartisan events of interest to a large part of the community. Items for the next issue should reach the Village Hall by noon Wednesday, June 22, or call the editor (657-3865) by Monday, June 27.

NOTICE

The Glenview Water Department offers remote-style water meters at no extra charge, enabling meter readers to get their information without entering homes of water customers. Installation takes about an hour. If you would like one installed at your house, call 724-1700, X 259 for an appointment.

NORTRAN ROUTE 220, originating in downtown Glenview, runs (via Golf-Mill and Des Plaines) to O'Hare Airport. There are now 4 airport stops: 2 for Terminal #3 (Delta and TWA), 1 for United's new Terminal #1, and 1 for Terminal #2 (Northwest and Continental). Several more clearly marked stops are now in place at O'Hare, making boarding easier for returning travelers.

All trips on NORTRAN ROUTE 228 now operate between the Harlem Avenue CTA station and Glenview.

Get an up-to-date NORTRAN bus schedule from drivers, write NORTRAN at Box 388, Des Plaines IL 60016, or call the RTA Travel Center, 1-800-972-7000.

TOUGH LOVE PARENT SUPPORT meets every Tuesday, 7:30-10pm, at Glencoe Community Center, 999 Green Bay Road, Glencoe, to discuss children's behavior problems. For more call 272-6801.

MUSIC ITEMS (records, tapes, instruments, equipment, books, sheets, etc.) for the Les Turner ALS Foundation's October Music Mart are accepted until September 15 at the fire station, 1815 Glenview Road (724-2141). Added Dimensions warehouse, 2079 Johns Court (729-8380), and the Bank of Glenbrook, 2801 Pfingsten Road (564-8300). Tax receipts will be mailed upon request. Proceeds support amyotrophic lateral sclerosis research at Northwestern University's Medical School.

ARTISTS INTERESTED in exhibiting at the Glenview Art League's 35th annual outdoor Art Fair Sat. and Sun., July 30 and 31, 11am-5pm at Lyon School, are invited to send five 35mm slides of work to the league by June 15 (Box 463, Glenview) marked top and front, with artist's name at bottom. (Send SASE if you want slides returned.) Show is juried; artists may enter one category only; please state medium.

NORTHSHORE LUPUS CHAPTER, a free support group for those with the disease, meets July 17, 2-4pm, at Holy Family Ambulatory Care Center, 201 E. Strong, Wheeling, and alternate weeks for 8 sessions. For more, call 998-1333.

BREASTFEEDING will be discussed by LaLeche League Tues., June 21, 7:30pm, at 3089 University (residence), Highland Park. Pregnant women and mothers of infants welcome — for details call 967-8259 or 729-3729.
